JETS DIRECTORS

The New York Jets directors are proud of their team's ten-year history in the American Football League. Three of the original backers of the Jets in 1963, Philip H. Iselin, Townsend B. Martin, and Leon Hess, have seen the team develop into one of the most respected franchises in professional football. Before the 1968 campaign Mrs. Helen L. Springborn, daughter of the late Donald C. Lillis, joined the board of directors to complete the transition from bankruptcy in 1962 to World Champions in 1968!

The 1969 campaign proved to be a season of frustration for the New York Jets directors, but the team did receive a measure of success by defending its Eastern Division crown and finished the year with the second best record in the club's history (10-4). New York fans will long remember a wind swept Shea Stadium in December when the Jets were literally "inches away" in the Inter-Divisional Playoff against Kansas City.

The New York Jets executives welcome a new decade and a new look in professional football in 1970. The season promises to hold continued excitement for New York fans and the interest of new rivalries brought about by the restructuring of the National Football League. The directors, along with head coach and general manager Weeb Ewbank, have strived to build a team of the finest coaches and players and look forward to another championship year in 1970.

PHILIP H. ISELIN, President and Chief Executive Officer, is president of the Korell Company and president and chairman of the Board of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club. The popular Iselin has had an extensive background in racing, and enjoys the unique distinction of heading two major sporting concerns. Mr. Iselin lives in Oceanport, N. J. and in 1969 was the recipient of an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters by Monmouth College (N.J.) for his contribution to the shore area.

TOWNSEND B. MARTIN, Chairman of the Board, is an internationally-known owner and breeder of thoroughbred race horses and a member of the Jockey Club. Mr. Martin is also engaged in the investment banking business with Bessemer Securities Corp. in New York City. An original backer of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club in 1946, he now serves on its Board of Directors.

LEON HESS, Vice President and Treasurer, is Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and a director of the Amerada Hess Corp., one of the great integrated oil companies in the world. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation and the New Jersey National Bank and Trust Company, among others.

MRS. HELEN L. SPRINGBORN, Vice President and Secretary, is the daughter of the late Donald C. Lillis, former President of the New York Jets. Mrs. Springborn, an enthusiastic football fan, is the first woman executive in professional football. She resides with her family in Greenwich, Conn.

WEEB EWBANK

Head Coach & General Manager

The first coach to win World Championships in both leagues (American and National) and the "Coach of the Decade" in the AFL — that's Weeb Ewbank, head coach and general manager of the New York Jets.

Ewbank guided the AFL Jets to the professional football world title in 1968 and won NFL titles back-to-back in 1958 and 1959 as head coach of the Baltimore Colts, the team the Jets defeated for the world crown. In the opening game of the 1969 campaign, Ewbank recorded his 100th pro victory as a head coach when the Jets stopped Buffalo.

Weeb began his career as an assistant at his alma mater, Miami University of Ohio, and spent 14 seasons there. In 1959 he was presented with an honorary Doctorate from Miami and in February of 1969 he was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

In 1943 he joined Paul Brown at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station as an assistant. At the end of the war, Weeb became backfield coach at Brown University and head basketball coach for the Bruins. After one season there he moved on to Washington University in St. Louis as head grid coach. In two seasons he brought the Maroons their finest record in 30 years, compiling a 14-4 record including a 9-1 mark in 1948. While there, Weeb also acquired a son-in-law—Charlie Winner, one of his players, married his daughter. Winner is now head coach of the St. Louis Cardinals.

In 1949, Ewbank rejoined Paul Brown and the Cleveland Browns, serving as line coach. During the next four years, the Browns dominated pro football, winning the all-America Conference title then taking the NFL championship in 1950 and Eastern division pennants in 1951-52-53.

Ewbank publicly exhibited his brilliant managerial talent when he moved to Baltimore in 1954. He took a team that was beset with disorganization and within six years produced two NFL championships. Among the many stars developed by Ewbank at Baltimore were Johnny Unitas, Alan Ameche, Raymond Berry, Lenny Moore, Gino Marchetti, Arthur Donovan, Bill Pellington, Jim Parker and Big Daddy Lipscomb.

In 1963 the New York Jets moved to get Ewbank to lead the struggling AFL franchise on the path to success. Moving carefully to reorganize the team, Ewbank led the Jets for four years before producing a winner for the first time in 1967. Then in 1968 the rebuilding plans came to fruition with the Super Bowl championship.

Through the years, players and assistant coaches who have been under Ewbank have gone on to greater assignments. Three of these associates have become head coaches in pro football. Clive Rush and Don McCafferty, who coached with Ewbank, are presently coaching Boston and Baltimore, respectively, while Don Shula, who played under Ewbank at Baltimore, is the head man at Miami. Joe Spencer, currently offensive line coach of the Jets, played tackle under Ewbank and Paul Brown at Cleveland. John Sandusky, Joe Thomas, Lou Rymkus, Art Spinney, Jack Patera, Carl Tasseff, Bobby Boyd, Bob Shaw, John Bridgers and Frank Lauterbur are others who have moved ahead after playing or coaching under Weeb.

Since coming to New York, the 63-year old Ewbank has developed six all-pro (combined AFL-NFL) players — Joe Namath, Gerry Philbin, George Sauer, Jim Turner, Matt Snell and Winston Hill. Don Maynard, Larry Grantham, Dainard Paulson, Dave Herman, Sherman Plunkett, Verlon Biggs and John Elliott are other Jets who have received all-AFL honors under Ewbank. A trio of these players — Namath, Philbin and Maynard — were selected to the all-time all-AFL team.

As an undergraduate at Miami, Weeb was a quarterback, captain of the baseball team and a member of the basketball squad.

A native of Richmond, Ind., he married the former Lucy Massey, also of Richmond. They have three married daughters all with families.

SHEA STADIUM

Home of the Jets

One of the premier showcases of the American Football League, William A. Shea Stadium is the home of the New York Jets. The multi-colored tiers of seats have housed Jets fans since the club moved from the old Polo Grounds for the 1964 season.

The stadium is at the center of a vast transportation network, which enables fans to arrive by land, sea or air with nearly equal ease. Vehicular traffic utilizes a $111 million complex of parkways, while crowds may also use the I.R.T. Flushing line subway which runs directly to the Willets Point station, only a few steps from Shea. The Long Island Railroad station is within easy walking distance as is the enlarged Flushing Bay Marina. Both Kennedy International and LaGuardia airports are minutes away by taxi.

There are 60,000 seats for Jet football games and all are totally unobstructed by columns or posts. Every seat has a clear view of the field. An ingenious system of seat rotation along railroad tracks allows 10,000 permanent seats to be moved electrically to positions along the sidelines. Over 19,000 seats are on the ground level; 14,000 are on the second tier, while 20,000 more are in the upper deck. Temporary seats, accomodating 5,000 fans are installed at the open end zone of the stadium.

Shea has one of the nation's most modern lighting techniques, with lights running in continuous strips around the cantilevered roof, eliminating all towers except for two banks beyond the endzone.

Every year since 1964 the Jets established AFL attendance records at Shea. An average crowd of 62,917 watched the defending world champions in action last year. The Jets also hold the record for the largest single game AFL attendance — 63,865 — which jammed the stadium to watch New York play Oakland on Nov. 30, 1969. It is also the largest crowd ever to see an event at Shea.

1968 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland in the ninth annual American Football League championship game. A championship game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (2 to Don Maynard, 1 to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack and Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who passed for 401 yards. Their running attack was blunted by the Jets league leading defense which held Hewitt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the first coach to win titles in both NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (4 yards), and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection offered by the Jets line was superb.

But the defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two, Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest point output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and thus made him the first man ever to coach World Champions in both the AFL and NFL.

THE 1969 JETS

GAME BY GAME

NEW YORK 33, BUFFALO 19 — At War Memorial Stadium, SRO attendance, 46,165, clear and warm. Two touchdowns in the fourth quarter enabled the Jets to record their first victory ever (as Jets) at Buffalo. The Jets moved out to a 19-3 lead, only to be tied by the Bills, before Matt Snell and Paul Crane scored late in the game. Jim Turner kicked four field goals (9, 26, 41 and 21) and added three extra points for a 15-point output. Joe Namath fired a 60-yard touchdown bomb to Don Maynard for the Jets' first touchdown on the play after which he was decked by the hard-rushing Bills. George Sauer was shut out for the first time in 53 games. O. J. Simpson, making his first pro start led the Bills in rushing with 35 yards on 10 tries and caught 2 passes for 64 yards.

DENVER 21, NEW YORK 19 — At Mile High Stadium, record SRO attendance, 50,583, hazy & mild. On the arm of reserve quarterback Pete Liske and with the enthusiasm of a record crowd, Denver scored its third straight victory over New York. Liske, entering the game after Steve Tensi was injured early in the second quarter, threw touchdown passes to Mike Haffner (23 yds.) and to Al Denson (41 yards) and completed 11 of 21 passes. Jets scored on Emerson Boozer's 3-yard dash late in the fourth quarter, but a two-point conversion try failed to tie the score. The Jets led 13-0 before Liske came off the bench to pull the upset. Jets' Steve O'Neal set an all-time pro record with a 98-yard punt in the second quarter.

SAN DIEGO 34, NEW YORK 27 — At San Diego Stadium, SRO attendance, 54,042, warm. The Jets fell below the .500 mark for the first time since the 1967 opener and suffered their second consecutive defeat as John Hadl and Joe Namath hooked up in a passing duel. Hadl regained his ailing throwing arm and tossed for three touchdowns (2 to Gary Garrison, 1 to Lance Alworth) as he took the Chargers to a 17-point lead and then held on as a late Jets' rally fell short when Joe Namath's pass for Bill Mathis was off line. Hadl passed for 281 yards, while Namath tied a Jet record with 29 completions in 51 attempts for 344 yards and two TDs (to George Sauer). Matt Snell, playing with the flu, got only 11 yards as the Jet rushing attack ground out a total of 81 yards to San Diego's 150. Jets offense was inconsistent, converting only 2 of 11 third down situations and none until the second half.

NEW YORK 23, BOSTON 14 — At Boston College Stadium, record SRO attendance, 25,584, clear & cool. A three-man rush line and four linebacker setup by the Patriots gave the Jets their troubles, but not enough to prevent them from breaking out of the doldrums and hanging up a satisfying victory. Three Jim Turner field goals (16, 24, 13), a TD pass by Joe Namath and a 5-yard scramble by Namath for another score accounted for the Jets points as Weeb Ewbank and his charges defeated former Jet aide Clive Rush in the first meeting between the two. Confronted with the different defense, the Jets turned to their running game, rolling up 164 yards on the ground. Namath added 15 of 21 passes for another 145 yards.

NEW YORK 21, CINCINNATI 7 — At Nippert Stadium record SRO attendance, 27,927, mild, sunny. The Jets put their entire game together for the most impressive showing of the season to date. Behind the running of Emerson Boozer and with the defensive line dumping Bengal quarterbacks 6 times, the Jets rolled to a 21-7 victory. Boozer enjoyed his finest day on the gridiron, running for 129 yards on 15 carries, including one burst good for 38 yards. The defense had a red-letter day, holding the Bengals to 89 rushing yards, and set up two of the Jet touchdowns. Paul Crane scored after Jim Richards blocked a punt and John Dockery intercepted a pass on the Jet 27 yardline to end a Bengal threat and start the Jets on a 73-yard march.

NEW YORK 26, HOUSTON 17 — At Shea Stadium, attendance, 63,841, chilly. The passing combination of Joe Namath to Don Maynard and four Jim Turner field goals led the Jets to victory before an AFL record crowd in the New Yorkers' home opener after five weeks on the road. Namath teamed with Maynard on scoring tosses of 57 and 54 yards in the second quarter to put the Jets in front 17-7. Turner came on with three field goals (48, 45, 21) in the second half as the Jets took over sole possession of first place. The Jets offensive machinery ground out the most yardage of the year (447) and took the AFL lead in rushing for the first time in the New York club history.

NEW YORK 23, BOSTON 17 — At Shea Stadium attendance, 62,298, mild, clear. A fourth quarter touchdown and a field goal by Jim Turner erased a 17-13 deficit and propelled the Jets to their fourth-straight victory. Boston led all the way until Emerson Boozer's 2-yard run midway through the final period as Boston again used the wide-five defense to bottle up the Jet passing game. New York turned to its running game in the second half, rolling up 141 yards on the ground over the final two periods. Jim Hudson returned to the Jet lineup at strong safety after being injured in the San Diego game, but left the contest in the third quarter with torn ligaments which sidelined him for the remainder of the season. Matt Snell paced the Jet attack with 109 yards on 23 carries.

NEW YORK 34, MIAMI 31 — At Shea Stadium, attendance, 61,761, rainy and windy. More fourth quarter heroics by Jim Turner gave the Jets their fifth consecutive victory. Turner punched through his second field goal of the game from the 36 yard line with only 2:41 remaining to snap a 31-31 tie and wrap up the victory. Miami, with Bob Griese passing to Larry Seiple and Jack Clancy, moved out to a 21-10 halftime lead. The Jets' defense stiffened over the final two quarters, surrendering only 122 yards (compared to 299 in the first half). In the fourth quarter as the Jets were driving for a touchdown, Don Maynard caught a 37-yard Joe Namath pass which put him over 10,000 yards receiving for his career.

NEW YORK 16, BUFFALO 6 — At Shea Stadium, attendance, 62,680, overcast, gusting winds. Bill Mathis' touchdown in the second quarter and three Jim Turner field goals in the second half lifted New York to a club record sixth straight victory despite an erratic showing by both the offense and the defense. The defense gave up 215 yards in the first half, but surrendered only 82 to the Bills in the second half allowing Buffalo into New York territory only twice, once for a Bruce Alford field goal. The Jets benefited from an illegal motion penalty against O. J. Simpson in the first quarter which nullified a Bills touchdown. Joe Namath finished up with 10 of 22 for 169 yards. Three Bills quarterbacks (Marlin Briscoe, Jack Kemp and Dan Darragh) were 14 of 24 for 220.

KANSAS CITY 34, NEW YORK 16 — At Shea Stadium, attendance, 63,849, cold and windy. With an AFL record crowd in the stands, the Jets suffered their first defeat since Sept. 28 as the Chiefs' Len Dawson-to-Otis Taylor passing combination riddled the New York secondary. Taylor, playing his first game since being sidelined with a groin injury, hauled in three touchdown passes of 18, 7 and 10 yards. His first came on the opening Kansas City play after a New York fumble had given KC possession on the 18 yardline. Turnovers were a factor in the game as the Jets were intercepted three times and fumbled twice. Despite the errors, Joe Namath completed 24 of 40 passes for 327 yards, his second best showing of the season.

NEW YORK 40, CINCINNATI 7 — At Shea Stadium, attendance, 62,128, sunny and clear. The Jets put together their best game of the year as they rolled up 328 yards to the Bengals' 158. John Elliott anchored a defensive line which dumped Greg Cook 5 times and let Cincinnati into New York ground only three times. New York's offense, working smoothly, scored every time it had the ball in the first half (except for 2 plays at the end of the second quarter), moving out to a 19-0 lead. Joe Namath hit on 11 of 20 passes for 172 yards in little under three quarters of work. Babe Parilli and Al Woodall then came on to lead the New Yorkers to scores. The victory was tempered though by the loss of Don Maynard, who suffered a fractured bone in his right foot late in the third quarter.

OAKLAND 27, NEW YORK 14 — At Shea Stadium, attendance, 63,865, cold, cloudy. In a replay of the Heidi game of the 1968 season, an AFI record crowd watched Oakland's passing game bomb the Jets to their fourth loss of the year. Daryle Lamonica and Warren Wells teamed up for two touchdown passes (34 and 20 yards) and Wells finished up the day with 5 catches good for 152 yards. Bake Turner, subbing for Don Maynard, caught a 54-yard TD toss from Joe Namath, but it was about the only bright spot for the Jets. The New York defense held Oakland to only two FGs in the second half, but the offense could get only 78 yards itself. The game was marred by 18 penalties for 241 yards, only 20 yards shy of the league record.

NEW YORK 34, HOUSTON 26 — At the Astrodome, BRO attendance, 51,923. On the indoor carpet at Houston the Jets clinched their second straight Eastern Division crown by upending their closest rival, Houston. The Jets scored the first two times they had the ball and moved out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter. Joe Namath passed for two touchdowns, Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer ran for one each, and Jim Turner added two field goals. Namath had his lowest yardage production since becoming a starter (52 yards), but six interceptions, nine sackings of Oiler QBs and three fumble recoveries aided the Jet cause. Club house celebrating was tamed by new AFL playoff system and injuries to Gerry Philbin and Randy Rasmussen. Philbin suffered a dislocated shoulder and Rasmussen a sprained ankle.

NEW YORK 27, MIAMI 9 — At the Orange Bowl, record attendance 48,108, sunny and warm. Resting Joe Namath and many of the other regulars, the Jets coasted to their 10th victory of the season. Namath played only the first quarter, but threw two touchdown passes (to Bake Turner and Matt Snell). Namath completed 5 of 8 passes for 99 yards, 34 of them coming on Turner's touchdown. Babe Parilli and rookie Al Woodall finished up as New York continued its domination of Miami. New York has never lost in 8 starts against the Dolphins. Ewbank substituted freely after the first period as the Jets tuned up for their playoff game against Kansas City. The victory was overshadowed somewhat by the injury to John Dockery, starting left cornerback in the first quarter. Dockery sustained a separated right shoulder and became the third Jet to suffer serious injury during the season (Jim Hudson and Don Maynard were the others).

KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6 — At Shea Stadium, attendance, 62,977, cold and windy. In the AFL's inter-divisional playoff, Kansas City struck for a fourth-quarter touchdown and ended the Jets hopes for a second Super Bowl appearance. Len Dawson fired a TD pass to Gloster Richardson (19 yds.) to break a 6-6 tie and send the Chiefs on their way to New Orleans. The game was a classic battle of defenses as only 3 FGs were scored over the first 3 quarters. Turning point came when the Chiefs stopped Namath and Company 3 times from the 1 at the outset of the final period. Richardson's touchdown came two plays later following a 61 yard pass to Otis Taylor.
